Tours/Museums

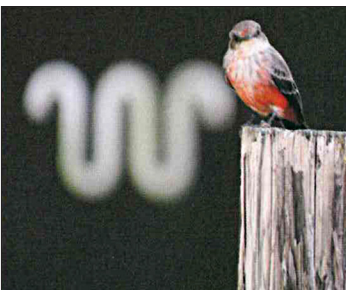

King Ranch® offers tours featuring birding and other wildlife, history and ranching. Kingsville Main Street offers a self-guided historical/shopping walking tour of the Downtown Historic District. There are several museums and galleries in town that invite strolls through their exhibits.

Dining

The City of Kingsville offers a variety of restaurants to satisfy the most discerning palate. Diners will find mesquite barbecue, steaks, seafood, Jalisco Mexican food, Middle Eastern, a variety of Asian food and much more.

Shopping

There is an eclectic collection of fine shops and intimate boutiques in Kingsville. Treasure seekers will be more than satisfied with the Southwestern jewelry, cowboy boots, Western apparel and fashionable clothing, furniture, and unique gift items and art that are available. Customized leather products can be made to order.

Birding/Wildlife

There are a number of hotspots for birders in the area, including Kleberg Park, King Ranch® (available through tours only), and Baffin Bay. Butterflies and wildflowers are abundant in season and can be found in our Monarch City USA Butterfly Buds Gardens.

Monthly Wine Walk

Experience our monthly Main Street Wine Walks from September through March. Enjoy shopping historic downtown while sampling a variety of wine and beer.

Fishing & Hunting

Baffin Bay offers world-class fishing and many ranches in the area cater to hunters of native and exotic game.

Farmers Market

Farmers Market is held at the Maggie Salinas Pavilion on the fourth Saturday of every month from 9 a.m. - noon.
